

Black History Month 2022 News and Events

In honor of Black History Month, the Black Lives Matter Taskforce wishes to highlight some new nursing literature and upcoming events focused on diversity, anti-racism and the history of Black nurses.

Nursing Inquiry has released a free special Issue on Anti-Racism including articles focusing on anticolonial, antiracist, and antidiscriminatory foundations for more effectively upholding nursing's disciplinary mandate for social justice and equity.

Access the Issue here: <https://onlinelibrary.wiley.com/toc/14401800/2022/29/1>

Also, just published in the American Journal of Nursing, "An Overdue Reckoning on Racism in Nursing".

Access the article here: <https://nursemanifest.com/2022/02/01/just-published-in-the-american-journal-of-nursing-an-overdue-reckoning-on-racism-in-nursing/>

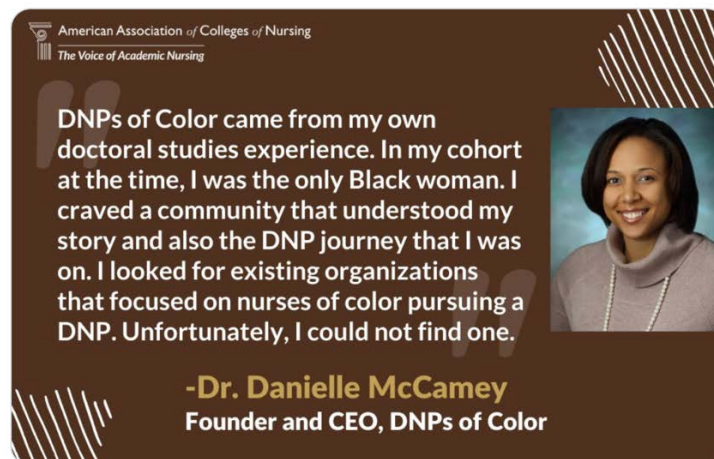

This month @AACNursing on Twitter highlights the work of Dr. Danielle McCamey, founder of @DNPsofColor. Learn more here:

<https://www.aacnnursing.org/Portals/42/Publications/Syllabus/Syllabus-January-February-2022.pdf>

AACN
@AACNursing

This #BlackHistoryMonth 🍌🍌, and every month, we celebrate the rich legacy of leadership & achievement forged by Black nurses. Learn about Dr. Danielle McCamey, who launched @DNPsofColor, the first organization focused on increasing diversity in DNP Programs: aacnnursing.org/Portals/42/Pub...

American Association of Colleges of Nursing
The Voice of Academic Nursing

DNPs of Color came from my own doctoral studies experience. In my cohort at the time, I was the only Black woman. I craved a community that understood my story and also the DNP journey that I was on. I looked for existing organizations that focused on nurses of color pursuing a DNP. Unfortunately, I could not find one.

-Dr. Danielle McCamey
Founder and CEO, DNPs of Color

7:32 AM · Feb 1, 2022 · Twitter Web App

Upcoming Event:

The History of Black Midwives: A Virtual Roundtable

Feb. 15, 2022

4 PM – 6 PM (Eastern Time)

In celebration of Black History Month, the UVA Bjoring Center for Nursing Historical Inquiry is pleased to host a panel discussion of distinguished scholars, featuring Dr. Wangui Muigai, a historian of medicine at Brandeis University who is writing a book on the history of Black infant mortality in the U.S.; Dr. Michelle Drew, a practicing midwife and chair of the American College of Nurse Midwives Caucus for Reproductive Justice and Birth Equity; and Dr. Gertrude Fraser, associate professor in UVA's Department of Anthropology and author of African American Midwifery in the South: Dialogues of Birth, Race, and Memory. View the full program.

Zoom link:

<https://virginia.zoom.us/j/99887291488?pwd=dVJWeENjY1Q1SzRlVzRHaUs2ZlpMUT09>

Meeting ID: 998 8729 1488

Passcode: 330942

For more information contact:

Maura Singleton

Center Manager

Eleanor Crowder Bjoring Center for Nursing Historical Inquiry

mks2d@virginia.edu

www.nursing.virginia.edu/nursing-history/

